EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William Gerstenzang on 29 December 2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, lines 1-2, "optionally comprising a heat-sealable coating" has been deleted.

In claim 1, the last line now reads:

"total thickness of all the layers containing polyamide, said multilayer film optionally comprising a heat-sealable coating."

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-12 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
4. The closest prior art, Ramesh (US 6,346,285 B1), teaches articles having polyamide and EVOH layers. However, the reference does not teach the use of polyamide 6 as a polyamide for forming the outer layer. By requiring the polyamide of the outer layer to have a melting point between 250 and 400 °F, Ramesh teaches away from the use of polyamide 6 in the outer layer, since polyamide 6 has a melting point of about 225 °C (437 °F). See Khanna et al., col. 7, lines 56-59. The prior art does not teach the addition of the claimed nucleating agents in the claimed polyamide layer structure and further provides no suggestion for using the applicant's claimed nucleating agent amounts relative to the layers. Therefore, it is the examiner's position that the applicant's claimed multilayer film, having an outer polyamide 6 layer with a specified nucleating agent, provides a novel and unobvious step over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
